BLUETEES

2026–2027 PRODUCT CATALOGUE

PLAY DIFFERENT.®

BUILT FOR WHAT'S NEXT.

Blue Tees Golf is redefining what golfers expect from technology by building a connected ecosystem that brings practice, play, and performance together. This year, that ecosystem grows with new products, expanded features, and deeper integration across the entire lineup. Every addition is designed to deliver value on its own while making the entire Blue Tees experience smarter, more connected, and more rewarding with every round.

For retailers, that means a stronger technology story, more opportunities to build larger baskets, and products that keep customers engaged long after their first purchase. For golfers, it means intuitive technology that helps them play smarter, improve faster, and enjoy the game more.

ONE PLAYER. ONE ECOSYSTEM.

Everything we do starts with the player. How they practice. How they play. Who they play with. And what makes the game more enjoyable for them. Our products are designed to do more than perform on their own. They share context, learn from every interaction, and become more useful together with every round.

At the center is the GAME AI Platform, bringing devices, rounds, practice, performance data, and player preferences into one evolving experience. The more a golfer plays and connects, the more personal, useful, and rewarding the entire ecosystem becomes.

More useful. More personal. More fun every round.

TAKE COMMAND OF EVERY ROUND.

SMART RETAIL DISPLAYS

RETAIL DISPLAYS

Our new compact displays for 2027 are a turnkey retail engine designed to educate, demonstrate, and convert. A small footprint fits any counter or endcap, showcasing how Blue Tees devices work together as one connected system. A full-screen, touch-driven app experience walks shoppers through the ecosystem, product comparisons, and how-to videos, keeping them engaged while answering the questions that typically slow a sale. Content updates automatically, so your display always reflects the latest products, features, and regional availability without a store visit. Fast to set up, simple to maintain, and built for any retail space, our displays turn a few square feet into sell-through.
